

LINKEDIN

San Francisco, CA Tower

Size

440,000 square feet

Project Highlights

Drew inspiration from diverse landscape and city's history; Created a community of new experiences to bring employees closer; Kit-of-parts and moveable walls utilized for flexibility; Central hub on each floor supports various work modes and activities; Special spaces include: All hands meeting space, UX lab, multiple game rooms, library/quiet spaces, and an arts room; Amenity spaces include: roof deck lounge; cafes/juice bars, "Eataly"-style cafeteria, fitness and wellness center, and training and seminar rooms; Interactive environmental graphics incorporated on each floor; Rigorous BIM/VDC process for team collaboration efforts; Rare process of design-build, integrated project delivery (IPD), and BIM became an "Integrated Design Build (IDB) project; Virtual Reality enabled easy communication of design ideas to client groups; Designed to LEED Platinum standards, pending certification

Services Provided

Workplace strategy and programming; Full service interior design and architecture; Environmental graphic design and branding; Sustainable, LEED, and WELL design; Integrated Design Build (IDB) process

